Knowing the time

“of the sons of Issachar who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and their brethren were at their command;”

1 Chronicles 12:32

Most likely you have heard about the sons of Issachar understanding the times, or prayed to understand the times like the sons of Issachar and to know and have strategy for what to do considering the times. I have as well.

The Lord prompted me to look up the meaning of the name Issachar this week.

Issachar means “his reward will come.”

When I read this, it felt like a lightening bolt of promise. As we have increased discernment and understanding concerning this season and the times that we are in, we can be assured that our reward, the Lord Himself, is coming.

“After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, saying, ‘Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward.’” Genesis 15:1

“Look, ADONAI Elohim [the Lord our God] comes with might, with His arm ruling for Him. Behold, His reward is with Him, and His recompense before Him.” Isaiah 40:10 TLV

“Behold, I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me, to pay back each one according to his deeds.” Revelation 22:12 TLV

We say with confidence and conviction, Maranatha!

Let us have His strategy for what to do as we wait for Him, persevering to the end, knowing that He is our exceedingly great reward.

Pray

- That the body of Messiah would understand the times; for wisdom, discernment, and unity. “and their brethren were at their command.” 1 Chronicles 12:32b
- That we would trust in God, our shield and protector, have an increased boldness, and not be afraid.
- For wisdom to know what to do, understanding the times, and emboldened by God’s love within us.
