Stand STILL before the crossing

"¹⁰And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them. So they were very afraid, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD. ¹¹Then they said to Moses, 'Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you so dealt with us, to bring us up out of Egypt? ¹²Is this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness.'"

¹³And Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever. ¹⁴The LORD will fight for you, and you shall hold your peace." Exodus 14:10-14

We often desire the breakthrough without the pressure. In order to cross over, we must endure – we must stand despite the pressure. When we stand still, we choose to trust, silence the fear, gird ourselves with His word, and then step out knowing that it is God alone who will accomplish all.

I want to encourage you today. If you are wondering if you should have maybe believed for less and stayed where you were, if you are afraid or questioning, or if you think you must DO something to achieve the breakthrough – Stand Still. Remind yourself that it is the Lord who is with you. It is the Lord who is for you. It is the Lord who fights for you. And then, go forward.
