Bread from Heaven

"Then Jesus said to them, 'Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.'" John 6:32-33

"³⁵And Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst. ³⁶But I said to you that you have seen Me and yet do not believe. ³⁷All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out. ³⁸For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. ³⁹This is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all He has give Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. ⁴⁰And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.'" John 6:35-40

Just as the Israelites were in need of bread from heaven (manna) for their sustenance, we are in need of Jesus, the true bread from heaven. Exodus 16 describes the Lord's faithfulness to supply the children of Israel with manna for forty years in the desert, and how a double portion was given on Fridays so that they would keep the Sabbath and not gather or cook but rather rest on that day.

The Lord's response to the children of Israel's complaints was to provide for their needs. His response to our need for a Savior was to send Jesus.

"¹⁰Now therefore, be wise, O kings; be instructed, you judges of the earth. ¹¹Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. ¹²Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish in the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him." Psalm 2:10-12
