Lovesick

Have you ever wanted something so desperately you felt sick? The deep ache of longing. It feels like a weight in the pit of your stomach. Time seemingly stands still, and the wait is almost unbearable.

This week, I felt the ache of our Lord Jesus for His Bride. It came in my lovesickness for Him. It was a crushing, urgent love. And then I felt utterly unprepared. There was no shame, just a quickening in my spirit to not have anything between myself and Him. He wanted my full attention, and I wanted Him to have it. I was desperate for Jesus, and felt that the delay in His coming was merciful. But His eyes were almost pleading that we would hasten our preparations.

"Behold, I am coming quickly! Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book." Revelation 22:7

"And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work." Revelation 22:12

"He who testifies to these things says, 'Surely I am coming quickly.' Amen Even so, come Lord Jesus!" Revelation 22:20

We – and the whole earth - will behold Jesus in all of His glory.

"Father, I desire that they also whom you gave Me may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me; for You loved Me before the foundation of the world." John 17:24

"And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, 'Alleluia! For the Lord God Omnipotent reigns! Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready.'" Revelation 19:6-7

"...Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!..." See Revelation 19:9
