October 9th-15th

Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem

We were all shocked when we heard news of Israel brutally and unexpectedly attacked and now, they are at war. It's simply overwhelming to see all the photos of the ones that have been killed and kidnapped, especially the children. We know the times are treacherous. Let's continue to pray! Even though we have always known this- the events in the world that were once solved by the delegations of man, are now only mitigated by God's hand of mercy, grace & justice -the Lord will hear our cries. He is the only One whom we look to for any resolve here on earth. It is the Lord's wisdom to have it become this way on earth so that we are forced to face our mortality, our soul's eternity, our limitations and know that only God is truly the Lord. We who know Christ as our Savior, are blessed to be saved in this time in history as we know this earth is not our home, let's pray that those facing death in Israel are encountered by the Holy Spirit to become saved.

1. Pray for the Holy Spirit to open the eyes of His beautiful people & Palestinians in Israel to Jesus
2. Pray- The Lord intervenes to help Israel in this time of dire need

3. Pray for the borders of Israel to become fortified supernaturally and that the soldiers that don't know Christ, see God's mighty hand and come to faith in Christ
4. Pray for the terrorists to have an encounter with our almighty God and become terrorized by the Lord & refrain from harming further & are saved
5. Pray Psalm 91 over all the inhabitants of Israel
6. Pray those kidnapped turn to God, meet their Messiah and are returned unharmed
7. Pray for miracles of protection, salvation, comfort and strength to the people
8. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem
