

Prayer Focus October 16th-October 22nd

The beginning of the most glorious of days on earth

This week, we witnessed on social media awful atrocities occurring in Israel. It is jolting. It is grievous. It has brought the body of Christ into a deeper level of intercession. Into sobriety of the soul. We are following Christ much closer. Our vision for the future is reaching beyond our earthly existence. Our understanding of God's Word is far more personal. He is the soothing, healing balm of Gilead to the suffering we see and are being prepared for. Personal sufferings, smaller now in comparison to His love for us. The spirits of fear and intimidation are bowing to the Holy Spirit, permanently. Transformed in Christ.

As I was praying about us as prayer leaders for Pray California, I saw a beautiful long line of clear glasses of water. Some were barely filled, some were half full or a little more filled than its neighboring glass. These glasses were not representing any particular persons in our group. I saw a glass pitcher of water come down from heaven and saw the Lord's hand holding it. He poured this water into each glass until each glass was continually overflowing, even after His hand moved on with the pitcher of cool water to fill the next one. I then saw all these waters gain incredible volume and the glasses of water were overcome by a river of water and it became alive and rushing, as a mighty river is. I received the impression that this is a result of our prayers. My vantage point became topographical. I saw the entire state of California. Every inch of the land became saturated with this water. It wasn't a flood, it was drenched land with the living water of Christ Jesus. It babbled loudly as it flowed into the desert, the valleys, and all the land, was drenched. I saw the sun's reflection sparkling on the waters from my vantage point. I heard these words-
"My Spirit will reach every place in this land. Keep praying and watch."
Wow! Praise You Lord! Thank You for making us into Your Bride as each day passes.
