God's order is being restored so the church can flourish

This past Saturday, some of you may have participated in the rally- Don'tmesswithourkids in Sacramento. It was also held in every state capitol. In the spirit, I saw many women coming out of crowds and leading new and powerful movements that will impact multitudes of people and groups of people.

As I waited on the Lord. I saw a crowd where the women were emerging to lead, I saw in the background, men being advocates for these women who were stepping out.

I saw men- they were leaders in the body of Christ'; interceding and asking the Lord to protect these women and they prayed the Lord make a way for the women to do what God was asking them to. I saw men leading and listening to the Lord for the women. It was a very beautiful and emotional vision to see.

What I saw was not only husbands advocating for their wives but men leading in the church without guile or ulterior motives in regard to their sisters in Christ. I heard the plumbline has been set before my leaders and they are heeding it.

I saw God's order being restored to the body of Christ. The order of godly leadership. It was not that God's order did not exist before but that it is now that His order of leadership will become full blown in his Church. I sensed the fear of the Lord upon His people. The purpose of man is to watch and pray, to protect and lead, to encourage the women to be what Christ has called them to be. I also saw the women choosing to forgive and these women were the ones who stepped out to lead. Right now, as I am writing this - I see children feeling safe in their homes and many returning to their homes and godly order is there in those homes. The order of the Holy Spirit brings peace, and the structure of God's church is established. Wow Lord! His church is about to flourish as in the days of the beginning of the church and it will reach its full potential on earth as it is written in heaven. Thank You Jesus.

Prayer points:

- 1.) Pray for the restoration of godly order in the Church- forgiveness & understanding to become a priority in the leadership in our churches over protocol.
- 2.) Pray for relationships to become aligned by the Holy Spirit so schedule is secondary in the churches. Pray honor and respect become.
- 3.) Pray that women who may have been hurt or shut down by male church leaders, forgive the men in the Church. Pray the men may forgive the women also and that they may see each other as they really are.
- 4.) Pray for the California church to lead the way in Biblical leadership and begin a radical movement so that the other states will want to follow its amazing example/
- 5.) Pray that the "don't mess with your kids," movement accomplishes what it set out to and new movements are birthed from it.
